Elevated alveolar fluid protein, a widely recognized syndrome of pulmonary edema of sepsis, was reported recently in a number of patients with meningitis, encephalitis, or both. In three of these patients whose indices of acute sepsis were well-documented, alveolar fluid protein was increased, as judged by a strongly positive alveolar-arterial oxygen difference. To test the generality of this phenomenon, we measured alveolar fluid protein in three patients with acute meningitis and encephalitis (in the absence of pulmonary edema) whose indices of acute sepsis were well-documented. In all three patients we found an elevated alveolar fluid protein with a strongly positive alveolar-arterial oxygen difference. Although caution in the interpretation of the data is in order, these observations suggest that the syndrome of pulmonary edema of sepsis exists in an expanded form and is not a rare anomaly in this clinical setting.Q: Joining by multiple criteria in Linq I have a class that I use in Linq queries: public class RequestedTasks : EntityBase

AWS CodeDeploy support for Amazon Web Services (AWS) seems to be here: CodeDeploy for AWS I don't see how to get a public IP Address that is valid for CodeDeploy to be used in a CloudFormation file. Can anyone help me on this? A: You can use a Lambda function that calls s3:GetBucketLocation from boto3.session import Session import json def lambda_handler(event, context): session = Session(config=aws.config.load_default_config()) location = session.get_bucket_location(Bucket=event['Bucket']) return { 'ip': location['LocationConstraint']['IpProtocol'], 'region': location['LocationConstraint']['Region'], 'availability_zone': location['LocationConstraint']['AvailabilityZone'] } The "Florida Tax Free Weekend" is an annual weekend in Florida, usually the last weekend of August, that shoppers can enjoy shopping-related discounts in stores, but most importantly, they can take advantage of Florida's "tax-free weekend" laws. The state offers tax-free weekend for a whole variety of merchandise categories, but the most common (and most popular) item is clothing and footwear. The law, which expired on Aug. 31, was implemented in 2012 and its "success" is something that has led to its extension. "These events f678ea9f9e
